Fees: $120 per session includes 4 lessons

Class Size: 1-4 Ages: 18 plus

Description: Painting flowers is an excellent way to learn basic drawing and painting skills. The student will work from floral bouquet from photos and actual real bouquets. Simple drawing, and painting techniques will be given to help guide the student as they learn what shapes, colors, and composition to use to create their own flower paintings. Students can expect to be guided by the teacher and receive personal attention.

Open Drop-In Painting Class

Teacher: Beth Bailey

Day: Mondays

Dates: January 20, 27; February 3, 17

Time: 2:00-3:30 pm

Fees: $25 per day with your supplies; $30 per day with teacher's supplies

Description: Start with a landscape painting and learn how to approach mixing, applying and layering colors. Work towards your goal of whatever subject you'd like to explore painting.

We will do a mini painting each session in 20 minutes before you begin your own subject.

Bring your own paints, paper or canvas and brushes or use the teacher's supplies. You may purchase paper or canvas from the teacher. Teacher will also have canvases or canvas paper at a small cost.

Creating a Journal

Teacher: Beth Bailey

Day: Mondays

Dates: February 3, 17; March 3, 10

Time: 12:00-1:30

Fees: $85 (includes basic supplies)

Description: Students start working on creating a unique cover for their journal that says something about them or someone they wish to gift the journal. The following lessons include making pages, adding pockets, sewing together, adding more glitz to the pages, and finally adding the closure for the journal.

Basic supplies are included but you will want to purchase and add some special touches for decorating the cover, pages or pockets.
