

Open Painting and Sketching

Teacher: Beth Bailey

Day: Tuesdays

Time: 1:30-3:00 pm

Dates: September 22,29, October 6

Fees*: $25 w/ your own supplies
per class
$30 w/ teacher's supplies
per class

Description: This is an open painting or sketching time where you can choose your own subject and materials to use. You can ask for advice or learn a new way to approach a subject. You provide the subject by bringing photos or clips from magazines for your artwork. It's best to use your own photos or work from some memory of an event or scene to use in the work. Teacher will offer painting ideas if needed.

Painting Sunrises and Sunsets

Description: Choose your medium- watercolor, acrylics, or gouache. We will explore different scenery with sunrises and sunsets using your favorite medium. Learn more about which colors blend best, various color effects, and a variety of ways to apply paint. For the first class, the teacher will provide a painting surface and various mediums to get you started but you may bring your own supplies as well. Students will receive a list of basic items to bring to the class at registration.

Watercolor & Acrylics for Adults

Teacher: Scott McRae

Day: Mondays Time: 10 am to noon

Session 1: July 27; August 3, 10, 17

Session 2: August 24, 31;

September 2*, 14

Fees*: $120 per session includes 4 lessons

Class Size: 1-5 Ages: 14 plus

* Class day changed to Wednesday

Description: Learn to start a painting with watercolors and then create more texture and focus by painting areas with acrylic paint. You can use acrylic paint to bring out details, colors, darks and lights where watercolors fall short. Those just starting in painting will find that acrylics are a great way to cover mistakes. Beginning drawing skills will be offered if needed. Supply list available at registration.
